Conflicts, Resolutions and the Middle East – With Israeli Senior Negotiator and International Law Expert Daniel Reisner

Daniel will share from his view why Israeli-Jordanian negotiations were successful while Israeli-Palestinian negotiations have not yet produced a peace treaty.

Daniel Reisner is one of Israel's leading experts in International Law. He worked for 19 years in the Israeli Defense Forces and 10 of those years he was the Head of the IDF International Law Department. He was the senior lawyer responsible for advising on and negotiating a wide variety of conflicts including the Israeli-Palestinian track (at Wye River, Camp David and Taba) and the Israeli-Jordanian Peace Accords.

He is a current lecturer in International Law for the International MA Program in Conflict Resolution and Mediation.
